Dear Jere:

We have made all the necessary arrangements to have your group here on May 24. Brother Fisher and I have conferred again and all the plans are being processed.

We do understand your intention about lunch and will not plan to have lunch here at the building. Several of our people will probably need to go home for lunch. Those who desire may eat with your group at the Rice Motor Inn.

We hope you bring a good number. We will expect you at 10 a.m. CST.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
